

L&T Finance elevates Dinanath Dubhashi as deputy MD

L&T Finance Holdings has appointed Dinanath Dubhashi as the deputy managing director of the company, a company release said. Dubhashi has also been appointed as a whole-time director on the board with effect from April 14, it indicated. The release pointed out prior to taking over as managing director and chief executive of L&T Finance, Dubhashi occupied various senior level positions in the organisation. Under his leadership, the retail platform has grown both organically and inorganically to reach an asset size of about ₹28,000 crore, serving over 3 million customers.